

The Advisory Council on Historic Preservation (ACHP) is pleased to announce that it is now accepting applications for the position of Program Analyst/Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Liaison (GG-13) within its Office of Federal Agency Programs (OFAP) in Washington, DC. The principal duties of the position include advising VA's on its efforts to reuse, modernize, and preserve important assets through the development of historic preservation policy and Section 106 case oversight.

The ACHP is an independent federal agency that advises the Administration and Congress on historic preservation matters and oversees the Section 106 review process established by the National Historic Preservation Act. OFAP works directly with agencies, states, Indian tribes, Native Hawaiian organizations and preservation stakeholders to implement the Section 106 review process and pursue preservation program improvements. The successful applicant will serve as the ACHP's liaison to VA, which owns over 1,700 hospitals, clinics, community living centers, and other facilities, and operates 135 national cemeteries in the U.S. and Puerto Rico.

The ACHP would appreciate you sharing the vacancy announcement broadly with your contacts. Please note that the closing date for applying for the position is July 6, 2017. The job description and application can be found at: <https://www.usajobs.gov/GetJob/ViewDetails/472705900>.

Should you have any questions regarding the position, feel free to contact Tom McCulloch, Ph.D., Assistant Director, OFAP, via e-mail at tmcculloch@achp.gov, or by phone at 202-517-0222.

Reid Nelson
Director
Office of Federal Agency Programs
Advisory Council on Historic Preservation